My wardrobe experience began in the downtown club scene, styling groundbreaking music videos beginning with the Beastie Boys and Run-DMC and continuing with the Pogues and Eric Clapton. During MTV's heyday I styled on-air promos for Barbara Kanowitz, Mark Pellington and Pam Thomas, among others. I have created custom leatherwear for heavy metal act Manowar since 1993, and custom stage clothes for drag performers. I moved into commercial styling for a wide range of brands and products, such as Macy's, GMC Trucks, Johnson & Johnson, Revlon, and Viacom promos. I designed sketch comedy shows with hundreds of outfits on Fox (for John Leguizamo), HBO, SciFi, and Comedy Central (for various comedians including Jeffrey Ross, Dave Atell, and Caroline Rhea). I recreated looks for true-crime shows and dressed on-camera talent for competition and other reality shows, including 3 years with 'Cake Boss' Buddy Valastro. I have styled for Tim Gunn for seven years on his makeover shows and other projects.

I am comfortable with period pieces, modern styling, over-the-top comedy and factual recreations. I pay attention to detail and have a sharp eye for a good visual joke. If I can't find it, I can make it.
